GOVERNOR PAUL CELLUCCI AWARD FOR LEADERSHIP AND MENTORING IN STATE GOVERNMENT

AWARD OVERVIEW

About the Award

The Governor Paul Cellucci Award for Leadership and Mentoring in State Government was established with the purpose of honoring an outstanding leader in the area of mentoring in the workplace.

Recipients of this award play a vital role in preparing the Commonwealth's workforce of tomorrow by serving as a teacher, role model, and confidante to either a subordinate or peer in the workplace. The candidate for the Governor Paul Cellucci Award for Leadership and Mentoring in State Government has made an ongoing and continuous commitment to the professional development of their fellow employee, sharing their expertise and transferring their knowledge in a capacity that goes far beyond the standard expectations of the job.

Eligibility

Executive Branch or Higher Education employees who have been in state service for 2 years as of April 4, 2017 are eligible for the Governor Paul Cellucci Award for Leadership and Mentoring in State Government. This is an individual award; groups are not eligible for nomination.

An individual does not have to be a recipient of the 2017 Citation for Outstanding Performance in order to be eligible for this award.

An individual may be nominated by a supervisor, peer, subordinate, professional colleague or others familiar with the person's work.

Agency heads and college presidents are not eligible for this award.

Award Criteria

The ideal candidate for the Governor Paul Cellucci Award for Leadership and Mentoring in State Government:

- plays a direct role in the professional development of a fellow employee within his or her department on an ongoing, day-to-day, basis;
- is passionate about good government and the important services being provided to the agency's customers and clients;
- serves as a resource and mentor to that individual;
- helps the individual reach their goals;
- shares his or her own valuable time and knowledge;
- shows a continued interest in the individual's growth and development;
- provides leadership in the workplace;
- inspires others to serve as mentors and plays a part in succession planning in the workplace.

Selection Process

Screening committees throughout the individual agencies will review all submissions within their own agency. Each agency will select a nomination to forward to the Human Resources Division (HRD) for consideration.

A Selection Committee consisting of the Chief Human Resources Officer and his Advisory Council will review all the nominations submitted. The committee will be chaired by the Chief Human Resources Officer or his or her designee. The Selection Committee will then recommend to the Governor the candidate they believe to be most worthy of the award.

The Governor makes all final selection decisions.
